

Capital Family Services believes that in order to provide the absolute best support for our clients, our employees need to have support, empowerment, and a positive and fun working environment. Our employees strive to provide meaningful support for children and youth in our community by implementing quality programming in various areas such as social skills, mentoring, behavioural modification, daily living skills, and meeting needs of individuals that we serve. Opportunities currently exist in the role of:

Family Support Worker

(Full Time, Part Time, and Casual positions available)

Job Summary: Family Support Workers are responsible for implementing service plans in collaboration with families and community services. Family Support Workers supervise and support family visits, provide transportation to appointments and scheduled events, assist individuals with different abilities and exceptionalities, and in home support and crisis intervention services. The successful applicant must be able to demonstrate skills in crisis intervention, conflict resolution, problem solving, and proficiency in written and verbal communication skills.

Education and Qualifications:

- A diploma in Child and Youth Work, Human/Social Services, or at least two years of a related degree such as Psychology, Criminology, Sociology, or an acceptable combination of education and experience.
- A minimum of 6 months to 1 year experience working with children or youth
- Proficient in Microsoft Word and Outlook
- Food Safe Certification (an asset, not required)
- Clear Criminal Record Check with Vulnerable Sector Screening (Required)
- Valid First Aid and CPR certification
- Valid Class 5 Driver's License.
- Clear and Current Driver's Abstract
- Vehicle Liability Insurance
- Current NVC training (asset)
- Reliable Transportation

Potential work hours include a mix of Day, Evening, Night, and weekend shifts. We can be flexible with your schedule! Please apply with resume and cover letter:

[hiring@capitalfamilyservices.ca](mailto: hiring@capitalfamilyservices.ca)